High Tech Engineering

Radiant- and Vacuumheaters

Our radiant and vacuum heaters offer innovative and efficient solutions for special requirements in a wide range of applications.

Both technologies are designed to offer maximum performance, even under demanding conditions

Our products offer numerous advantages from which you can benefit:

- Precision: Precise temperature control and even heat distribution in the vacuum environment
- Efficiency: High energy efficiency thanks to reduced heat loss and optimized heat transfer
- Reliability: Robust systems designed for long-term use in demanding environments
- Durability: Robust construction and high-quality materials ensure a long service life and reliable operation
